OFF EASTERN POINT.

Several Seiners Get Fares Wednesday Afternoon.

Market Fairly Glutted with Large Mackerel.

Right off Eastern Point, in full view of the city, several of the seining fleet made good hauls of mackerel Wednesday afternoon. The fish were in small schools, from 15 to 40 barrels, but they were for the most part very large fish, with a few mediums mixed in.

Schs. Bertha M. Miller, Corsair, Agnes E. Downes, Speculator and the steamer A. B. Nickerson all sailed from here on Wednesday, the latter bound pollocking, and the others headed for the seining grounds to the southward. Not far off the Point, their lookouts sighted schools of fish. Seines were quickly made on and soon all were making sets, with the result that at night all had something to show for their afternoon's fishing.

All the crafts except sch. Speculator ran in here Wednesday evening with their fares. Sch. Corsair, Capt. George Hamer, had 100 barrels, sch. Agnes E. Downes, Capt. Solomon A. Rowe, 130 barrels, steamer A. B. Nickerson, 250 barrels, and sch. Bertha M. Miller, Capt. Eli Wilson, 130 barrels. The first three took out their fares last evening, and the Bertha M. Miller landed hers this morning.

The captains report the fish, most of them of extra size, with the schools small and somewhat wild. They did not show until afternoon and went down before dusk.

Sch. George F. Edmunds is at Newport to-day with 150 barrels fresh mackerel.

The steamer Angelia B. Nickerson, which came in here last night, did not land her fare of 250 barrels, but went to Boston with them.

Steamer C. W. Humphrey is at Boston from the southward this morning with 175 barrels of fresh mackerel. Sloop City of Everett is also at Boston with 1200 large fresh mackerel.

The fare of sch. Pinta sold to Slade Gorton & Co., and that of sch. Rigel to George Perkins & Son, both at $9 per barrel.

Sch. Richard Wainwright was at Sydney, C. B., on Tuesday with 400 barrels salt mackerel.

Part of the fare of sch. Navahoe sold at $3.25 per barrel.

The market is fairly gutted with fresh mackerel, as can readily be seen when big mackerel weighing four pounds each and some even larger are selling at 4 1-2 cents apiece.

Sch. Norumbega, Capt. John McKinnon, is at this port from Block Island this morning with the largest salt mackerel fare of the season, 325 barrels, which sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co.

The fare of sch. Henry M. Stanley sold to Wm. H. Jordan.

New Bedford had 200 barrels fresh mackerel Wednesday.
